

Speech Language Pathologist

The Institute For Effective Education
San Diego, CA, USA

We are seeking a full or part time Speech Language Pathologist (SLP).

Compensation

$68,700 to $94,000 Annually

Benefits

Health, dental, vision, life, flex plan, partial tuition reimbursement, daycare and tuition discounts for children of employees, internships/fellowships

Responsibilities

- Serve as an integral member of a team at a non-public school for elementary age children, offering an Applied Behavior Analysis model for learners with communication, learning and behavior challenges.
- Provide direct service to students in both 1:1 and small group settings utilizing evidence based practices. Design supplemental enrichment opportunities that target language development.
- Conduct informal assessments and report present level information in students' Individualized Education Plans (IEPs).
- Assess need for Augmentative and Alternative Communication systems (AAC-sign language, gestures, speech-generating devices [SGDs], and/or written language)
- Collaborate with Behavior Analysts (BCBAs) and Education Specialists in treatment design and program development
- Gather data, monitor data and analyze progress regularly
- Maintain client files and treatment logs in an organized manner. Document all sessions, both content and minutes, on a daily basis
- Attend and participate in meetings as required (e.g., team meetings, parent meetings, IEP meetings)
- Develop instructional materials and evaluate commercially produced materials for use in treatment

Required Qualifications

- Current California Speech-Language Pathology License

Preferred Qualifications

- Experience working with learners with autism

- Prior experience working within an Applied Behavior Analysis model or relevant coursework

Please visit our website at: tiee.org to learn about our amazing organization and our various school programs. You can also download an application for employment and include your resume.

About The Institute For Effective Education:

The Institute for Effective Education (TIEE) is dedicated to education that is unparalleled in scope of curriculum, effectiveness of instruction, and pervasiveness of positive ambience. To achieve this goal, TIEE is committed to using the principles and methods established by behavioral science research of the highest standard in order to educate individuals, whose talents span the full spectrum of ability.