

Special Education Paraprofessional Teacher

The Institute For Effective Education

San Diego, CA, USA

Compensation

$16 to $17.50 Hourly

Full and part-time positions available at The Institute for Effective Education, a non-profit organization that operates 5 private schools and an adult program in the San Diego Area. We are currently seeking paraprofessional educators for our special education schools where we are currently serving students K-12 with communication, learning and behavioral challenges.

As a research based organization, we provide extensive training on evidence based instructional practices that are grounded in the science of Applied Behavior Analysis. We also provide direct coaching and support in the classroom to sharpen the talents of our teachers and better serve our students and our mission.

We provide a supportive and positive learning environment for both our students and staff members and we are looking for energetic people that bring the same mentality, a strong team-player approach, and are ready to learn.

For those interested in pursuing a career in special education, we offer tuition support as well as opportunities for completing student teaching and internships in our schools. At several of our locations, we also offer supervision hours for those aiming to become a Board Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA).

Other Benefits include: Health, dental, vision, life insurance, flex plan, subsidized daycare and tuition costs for TIEE's private school for children of employees.
